

Across

1. a constitution creates a democracy and the king or queen is a figurehead with no powers of government
4. actions based on prejudice usually based on race, religion, class or sex
8. an 18th century movement that emphasized the use of reason to examine issues
10. to make judgments based on very few or no facts; taking sides
12. the leaving of one country to settle in another
17. policy of separation of the races enforced by law
18. refusal to obey laws to try to bring about a change in government policy
19. money, usually paper money
20. tax on goods and services produced and sold within a country
21. the final state of social evolution according to Marx, in which the state has withered away and economic goods are distributed according to need.
22. A group of emigrants or their descendants who settle in a distant territory but remain subject to or closely associated with the parent country.
23. Good shipped out of a country to another country
24. protections and privileges given to all U.S. citizens by the Constitution and Bill of rights

Down

1. reliable; believable
2. refers to the number of people living in a certain area
3. powerful or major concern usually related to the government's power to intervene or act
4. to overwhelm with problems; destroy
5. to strongly disapprove
6. power to govern
7. to take away the right to vote
9. shared way of living in a society or among a group of people; a way of life
10. Group (of people, countries, lawmakers, etc) who are united for a common purpose
11. relates to the production and use of resources, goods and services
12. relating to people who share a common language, customs and religion
13. to argue in favor of something
14. the act of spying
15. king or queen has complete control of the government with no regard for the will of the people
16. a positive statement or declaration, often without support or reason
17. something gained or taken over
19. to strongly disapprove

