

Across

6. dependable; trustworthy
9. a document, speech, or other sort of evidence written, created or otherwise produced during the time under study
11. Taxes on imports or exports
13. refers to residential communities surrounding a large city
15. to prove something false; to deny the accuracy or truth of something
16. Relating to cities
18. Good shipped into a country from another country
20. rising prices
23. belief that the government should allow business to work free from government interference
27. invasion and control of a nation or territory by a foreign power
28. an idea or thought supported with facts
29. the right to vote
30. impartial; unprejudiced; not taking sides
33. any one of various systems in which the means of producing goods are owned by the community or the government rather than by private individuals with all people sharing in the work and the goods produced.
34. type of government based on religious rules and authority; religious leaders are also the political leaders

Down

1. government rules designed to control behavior and actions of groups, businesses, etc.
2. the systematic spreading of ideas or beliefs reflecting the views and interests of those advocating a doctrine or cause.
3. use of false spoken statements to harm another's reputation
4. a view or outlook on something
5. The policy or practice of separating people of different races, classes, or ethnic groups, as in schools, housing, and public or commercial facilities, especially as a form of discrimination
7. Time period during the 19th century dominated by new
8. Payments made from one country to another for war damages and war costs
9. to harass, annoy or pick on a person because of the beliefs, religion or race
10. barrier created by the Soviet Union to prevent communication and trade between Communist eastern Europe and democratic western Europe during the Cold War
12. the distribution of political power among the branches of government, giving each branch a particular set of responsibilities.
14. Planned effort to destroy an entire group of people who share a common characteristic; such as the Jews in the Holocaust
17. dealing with the affairs of government; refers to boundaries of nations and states
19. One who lives where he was born
20. extension of one country's power and influence into other areas of the world
21. to find a solution
22. Time period during the 19th century dominated attempts to reform and correct the problems society and government
23. use of false printed material to harm another person's reputation
24. relating to farming regions; "the country"
25. Movement of people from one area to another
26. camp for prisoners, usually political prisoners or war time prisoners
31. rule by a royal family; a king or queen who inherits their position by birth
32. to set free